Overview of Program Structure

NOSM Medical Physics Residency Education Program Committee

Academic home for faculty and residents

Provides access to books and journals

Distance Education and Learner Evaluation on-line tools

Facilitates frequent communication between residents and faculty across sites

Sudbury base site for one resident

Provide financial support to resident, including site visits and scientific meetings

Location for primary "hands-on" training in clinical practice

Coordination of weekly faculty and resident dual campus videoconference / teleconference meetings

Site of Associate Program Director.

Thunder Bay base site for one resident

Provide financial support to resident, including site visits and scientific meetings

Location for primary "hands-on" training in clinical practice

Coordination of weekly faculty and resident dual campus videoconference / teleconference meetings

Site of Program Director.