Tracheal intubation in patients with COVID-19

Laura V. Duggan MD, George Mastoras MD, Gregory L. Bryson MD MSc

Removing PPE carries a high-risk of self-contamination

It is difficult to detect self-contamination.3 Use a doffing checklist, read each step aloud and remove PPE as directed by a spotter.3 Interruptions during this process should be minimized.