COMMUNITY DESCRIPTION

POPULATION AND DEMOGRAPHICS

Surrounded by the expansive Boreal Forest, the Municipality of Greenstone offers an outdoor escape that drives its key industry and supports the quality of life for residents and visitors. With rich forests and untouched lakes and river systems teeming with fish and wildlife, this rugged natural hotspot attracts outdoor enthusiasts from near and far. This municipality boasts a bi-lingual population with residents with French as their first or second language.

Greenstone has wards along the highway, including Beardmore, Geraldton and Longlac. The Nakina Ward branches out to the northern boundary. The Rural West Ward includes Jellicoe, MacDiarmid, Orient Bay and rural properties located west of Geraldton, and the Rural East Ward has rural properties located east of Geraldton.

Many First Nations thrive and coexist within the Municipality, including Long Lake 58, Lake Nipigon Ojibwa, Rocky Bay and Sand Point, with Aroland and Ginoogaming First Nations just situated outside its boundaries.

Located within the District of Thunder Bay, Greenstone is one of Canada's largest municipalities, spanning 3,172 square kilometres with a population of 5,000. Its prime location along the Trans-Canada Highway 11 provides direct transit for all businesses and travellers.
