

Stand Up: Understanding and Combatting Microaggressions

E-Learning Program

Microaggressions affect learners, patients, and our colleagues. In this 3-hour program, learn about microaggressions, their impact and relation to healthcare disparities, and strategies for responding to them to promote safe learning and work environments.

Learning Objectives

1. Describe microaggressions and examples of microaggressions (Health Advocate, Communicator, Professional).
 2. Explain how microaggressions result in healthcare disparities and unsafe environments for learners, faculty, clinicians, and patients (Health Advocate, Communicator, Professional).
 3. Apply the Triangle Model Framework to respond to microaggressions as the source, bystander, or recipient of a microaggression (Communicator, Collaborator, Professional, Health Advocate).
